Anna: Dad, where are you? I'm at home, but there's nothing to eat, and I'm so hungry. Is dinner ready?

Dad: Oh, sorry, Anna. I didn't have time to prepare anything. But there's something in the fridge for sure.

Anna: OK, let me see. There's some milk, two sausages, a few eggs, some butter, and some vegetables. But I don't want to eat vegetables. Yuck!

Dad: Anna, please. I think you can make scrambled eggs.

Anna: What? Me? No way.

Dad: I'll tell you what to do. It's super easy.

Anna: OK. What do I need?

Dad: Take out two eggs, some butter, and the sausages from the fridge. Also, get a frying pan and a fork.

Anna: OK, got it. What now?

Dad: First, cut the sausages into small pieces. Then, heat a bit of butter in the frying pan and fry the sausages for a few minutes.

Anna: OK, I've done that. What's next?

Dad: Break the eggs into a bowl, add a pinch of salt, and mix them well with a fork. Then pour the eggs into the pan with the sausages.

Anna: OK, done. What now?

Dad: Stir everything gently until the eggs are cooked. It should only take a couple of minutes.

Anna: Got it. Thanks, Dad.

Dad: Great, well done. I hope you'll make some for me, too.

Anna: Sure, Dad, no problem.
