WEDDING	NEW YEAR	MOTHER'S DAY	FATHER'S DAY
EASTER	CHRISTMAS	CHILDREN'S DAY	BIRTHDAY
It's in winter. You celebrate it in December with a beautiful tree full of lights and shiny decorations. People sing carols, visit their families, and exchange gifts. This is also the day Christians celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, who brings hope and love to the world.
It's celebrated in May. Children create lovely cards and small gifts for their mums. They say "I love you," give hugs, and spend time making their mothers feel special.
It's in spring. People prepare a basket filled with delicious food and take it to church for a blessing. Chicks and bunnies are everywhere—they're symbols of this joyful celebration. Christians celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ, which brings the promise of new life and hope.
It's the best day ever! You get presents, invite your friends and family, and blow out candles on a cake while everyone sings a special song just for you.
It's a beautiful day when a woman wears a stunning white dress, and a man wears a suit. There's a ceremony in a church, followed by a big party at a restaurant where guests dance, talk, and celebrate with the newlyweds.
It's in June. Children give their dads thoughtful cards and gifts, saying "Thank you" for everything they do. Families often enjoy spending time together on this special day.
It's the first day of the year. People celebrate at midnight with fireworks, countdowns, and cheers for new beginnings. It's in June, and it's all about kids! They get gifts, enjoy special events, and spend the day having fun with their families.

The best day to celebrate!

Do you have a favourite celebration? I bet you do. I don't really enjoy Christmas like most people. My parents are divorced, so I have to spend Christmas Day sometimes with my mom and sometimes with my dad. It feels lonely because it's never the same. I don't like that we're not all together, and I miss the way it used to be.

But there's one celebration I absolutely love—Halloween! It's so much fun. On 31st of October I get to dress up in cool costumes and go trick-or-treating with my friends around the neighbourhood. We knock on doors, collect loads of candy, and sometimes even play small pranks on each other. Everyone's in a good mood, and the spooky decorations make it so exciting.

I also like my birthday. It's the one day when both my mom and dad make me feel special. They always spend time with me, and even though they're not together, I get two amazing presents—one from each of them! We usually have a small party at home, and I invite my best friends.

That's all for today.
