Hi Sam,

We recently got a new teacher at school. He's very nice _____ and _____ at explaining things, which makes his lessons enjoyable. He has short brown hair, wears glasses, and often dresses in big _____ sweaters. He always has a nice _____ smile that puts everyone at ease.

He teaches history, which is one of my favourite subjects. What I like most about his classes is that he always shares interesting _____ examples from the past. He even sometimes uses funny _____ to help us remember important dates and events, which makes learning more enjoyable.

One day, I was having trouble understanding a difficult argument. He noticed I was struggling and came over to help. He explained each part of the task, making sure I understood everything. After that, I felt really _____ and confident about finishing the assignment on my own. It's great to have someone who cares so much about helping us succeed.

That's all for now. Remember to write back so we can get a chance.

Take care,
XYZ

Hi everyone,

My family and I recently decided to do a big _____ renovation in our house. We wanted to make our home feel nice _____ and comfortable, as it was starting to look old and worn out. Plus, some rooms needed updating, so we thought it was a good time to make some changes.

After the renovation, the house looks completely different! We painted the walls in pretty _____ colours, got new furniture, and even changed the layout of some rooms. The living room, in particular, looks very _____ with a large window that lets in lots of light. It feels much more modern and bright.

The renovation took about three months, which felt like a long time, but it was worth it. I'm really _____ with how everything turned out. What I like the most is my new bedroom. It's so cozy, and I finally have enough space for all my things. It looks _____ and fresh.

What do you think of renovations like this? Let me know in the comments!

Until next time,
XYZ
