Oh no! Last Night the Grinch broke into my house and tried to destroy the Christmas magic!

	Grinch ate all the cookies for Santa and all the carrots for the reindeers. He also drank all the milk! There aren't any cookies or carrots on the plate. There are only a few crumbs. There isn't any milk in the glass. There is only a little milk on the table
	Grinch destroyed my Christmas tree! There aren't many ornaments on the Christmas tree, but there is a lot of broken glass on the floor! And some of the Christmas lights are so tangled that I can't untangle them! And why is there a dirty sock on the top of my Christmas tree instead of a golden star?!
	Wait... What happened to my sweets? Oh no! Every candy cane is broken and no gingerbread man has its legs! Grinch bit them off! And why do all the candies look suspicious? Oh, Grinch ate them all and put brussel sprouts in candy wrappers. Why is he so mean?
	Luckily, my grandma brought fresh cookies, carrots and milk for Santa and his reindeers. There are a lot of cookies and carrots on the plate. And there's a lot of milk in the glass! My mum made a lot of new candy canes and gingerbread men and hung them on the Christmas tree. My dad found a few ornaments in the attic. There aren't many of them on the Christmas tree, but we are happy
